November 2011

What is the significance of Nov. 11, 2011?

There is a transcendental aspect about the vibration of numbers. Each of the sequence of repetitive dates on the calendar (1.1.1, 2.2.2, 3.3.3 through 12.12.12) hold a unique meaning and power based on symbolic numerological interpretations. But the numbers 11.11.11 are particularly significant.

Numerologically, eleven is a powerful number. The number 1 represents the Creator-God, the masculine energy setting itself into the outer world, creating new beginnings. When that number 1 resonates and repeats itself, it becomes 11 which is a "Master Vibration Number".

The master number 11 means The Spiritual Messenger. It is the messenger that brings revelation and inspiration from a higher plain. This spiritual vibration is the architect of brotherly love on a grand or global scale.

Additionally, the triple eleven has the ability, through its visible nature, to open a palpable awareness in each of us. The refined energy behind the visible awakens and speaks to our souls. That activity opens a portal or a doorway causing a discernible sound deep inside that represents the Divine Spirit awakening in each of us. We hear that calling on different sensory levels and respond to it - though all that was visible was a date on the calendar proclaiming 11.11.11.

Quotation from Rumi

"All the hopes, desires, loves, and affections that people have for different things -- fathers, mothers, friends, heavens, the earth, gardens, palaces, sciences, works, food, drink -- the saint knows that these are desires for God and all those things are veils. When men leave this world and see the King without these veils, then they will know that all were veils and coverings, that the object of their desire was in reality that One Thing ... They will see all things face to face."

The Spirit Likes To Dress Up

The spirit
likes to dress up like this:
ten fingers,
ten toes,
shoulders, and all the rest
at night
in the black branches,
in the morning
in the blue branches
of the world.
It could float, of course,
but would rather
plumb rough matter.
Airy and shapeless thing,
it needs
the metaphor of the body,
lime and appetite,
the oceanic fluids;
it needs the body's world,
instinct
and imagination
and the dark hug of time,
sweetness
and tangibility,
to be understood,
to be more than pure light
that burns
where no one is --
so it enters us --
in the morning
shines from brute comfort
like a stitch of lightning;
and at night
lights up the deep and wondrous drownings of the body
like a star.

~ Mary Oliver

Love Is Action

"I've heard people say that they cling to their painful thoughts because they're afraid that without them they wouldn't be activists for peace.

"If I feel peaceful," they say, "why would I bother taking action at all?"

My answer is "Because that's what love does."

To think that we need sadness or outrage to motivate us to do what's right is insane. As if the clearer and happier you get, the less kind you become. As if when someone finds freedom, she just sits around all day with drool running down her chin. My experience is the opposite.

Love is action."

~ Byron Katie

Life is Supposed To Be Fun

Life is supposed to be fun.
You said, "I'll go forth and choose. I'll look at the data, and I'll say, yes to this, and yes to this, and yes to this,
and I'll paint a picture of the things that I want, and I'll vibrate about them, because that's what I'm giving my attention to. And the Universe will respond to my vibration.
And then I'll stand in a new place where a whole new batch of yeses are available, and I'll say yes to this,
and yes to this, and yes to this."

You did not say, "I'll go forth and struggle into joy", because from your Nonphysical Perspective you know it is vibrationally not possible. You cannot struggle to joy.
Struggle and joy are not on the same channel.
You joy your way to joy.
You laugh your way to success.
It is through your joy that good things come.
